

CHAPTER FIVE – THEODORE MCGEE FAMILY

Generation No. 2

1. THEODORE² MCGEE (*JOHN*¹) was born July 30, 1836 in Oxford, Butler County, Ohio, and died July 31, 1905 in Livermore, Humboldt County, Iowa. He married SARAH LUVENA WRIGHT December 29, 1864 in Greensburg, Decatur County, Indiana, daughter of RICHARD WRIGHT and LUVENA STARK. She was born July 16, 1846 in Decatur County, Indiana, and died December 17, 1928 in Humboldt County, Iowa.

Notes for THEODORE MCGEE:

Theodore McGee was born on July 30, 1836, in Oxford, Butler County, Ohio, the youngest child of John McGee and Jane Cassel. He departed his home in Clinton County, Indiana around 1860, and by some process arrived in Clinton County, Illinois where he enlisted in Company E of the 20th Regiment of the Illinois Infantry Volunteers on April 27, 1861. He served in the 20th Regiment throughout most of the Civil War, and was mustered out on June 12, 1864 at Chattanooga, Tennessee at the expiration of his three year term. His muster out pay was $100.00 plus $4.86 for a ticket from Cairo, Illinois to Clinton County, Indiana.

The 20th Regiment had a very distinguished record, serving under General Grant at Forts Henry and Donaldson, the Battle of Shiloh (where Theodore was wounded), and the siege and surrender of Vicksburg. After Grant came to the East, the regiment served under General Sherman at Kennesaw Mountain, the siege and burning of Atlanta, Sherman's march from Atlanta to the sea and the Grand Review in Washington. According to Theodore's discharge papers, he was born in Oxford, Ohio on July 30th (no year given), was six feet tall, dark complexion, brown eyes, black hair, and was a farmer when he enrolled.

After his release from the Army, Theodore McGee must have traveled to visit his brother, Ralph McGee, who owned a farm near Greensburg, Indiana because on December 29, 1864, he married Sarah L. Wright in Decatur County, Indiana. She was the daughter of Richard Wright and Luvena Stark, neighbors of Ralph McGee, who had moved to Decatur County from Kentucky in 1826. Ralph McGee had been a resident of Decatur County since 1853, and was a successful and respected member of the community. Theodore's obituary stated that he and Sarah lived in Indiana for one year after their marriage before moving to Illinois for one year, and then finally, in the spring of 1868, they moved by covered wagon to Livermore, Humboldt County, Iowa. It was here that they lived out the remainder of their lives raising sixteen children to adulthood. Theodore McGee died of diabetes on July 31, 1905.

Notes for SARAH LUVENA WRIGHT:

Audrey Howard, the great granddaughter of Sarah, and the daughter of Verna Hiserodt Moulds, has memories of her sending hand-knitted mittens to her for Christmas presents when she was a little girl. She also remembers attending her funeral with her mother, Verna. (from Don Hiserodt.)

The 1920 census for Springvale Township, Humboldt County, Iowa lists Sarah L. McGee, age 73, head, a widow.

Between 1865 and 1889, Sarah (Wright) McGee gave birth to eighteen children, two of whom died as infants. Sarah died at age 82, at Livermore, Iowa on December 17, 1928 and was buried alongside her husband, Theodore McGee, in Union Cemetery. The cause of death was given as arteriosclerosis.

Obituary for Sarah Luvena McGee

Sarah Luvena Wright was born at Greensburg, Indiana on July 16, 1846. She peacefully passed to her eternal rest on December 16, 1928 in her home in Humboldt at the ripe old age of eighty two years and five months.

On December 29, 1864, she was united in marriage to Theodore McGee. To this union eighteen children were born, two of whom died in infancy and sixteen were raised to manhood and womanhood.

Her beloved husband preceded her in death in the year 1905 and also the following children have preceded her: two children died in infancy; Annie McGee; Richard McGee; Mrs. Minnie Hiserodt and J. W. McGee.

She leaves to mourn her loss the following sons and daughters: J. F. McGee; Carrie M.; Jeanette; Elizabeth; Cora E.; T. C. McGee; L. C. McGee; Lucinda; Elma; Aurilla; Frank McGee; Ben H. McGee. In addition to the above, she also leaves twenty four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren, also three brothers, two of whom live in Indiana and one in California.

She came to reside in Humboldt County with her husband in 1868 and has resided in this vicinity for 60 years. She belongs to that hardy race of pioneers who have been such heroic factors in the building up of all that is best in a nation's life. Enduring the hardships of the days of those early settlers, bravely and successfully contending against all the inconveniences of those prairie schooner and stage coach days, she raised her family and aided by precept and example in building up a Christian civilization.

Through the days of Abraham Lincoln and the dark days of the Civil War she lived and toiled. She became a bride in the year of Lincoln's death. She has lived to see the gradual growth of the nation until we have reached the highest place among all nations of the earth.

For many years she has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was a lover of all that is beautiful and good. Loving in her life, affectionate in her family circle, patient in her suffering she has now passed from earth and understands more clearly than we do, the glory of the many mansions as promised by her Christ and ours.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Joseph J. Share, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Humboldt. The service was held in the church at three in the afternoon, Wednesday, December 19, 1928. Burial took place in the cemetery at Livermore, Iowa.

Notes for HOMER CEYLON MUNSON:

"My grandfather, Homer Ceylon Munson, was born in 1900 and became one of America's pioneer aviators. He was in flight school with Charles Lindberg in Texas and later went on to fly the very first flight to have stewardesses as a pilot with United. He also set many speed records as a young pilot. In his fifties, he became a Colonel and was the personal pilot for General George C. Marshall and also flew President Theodore Roosevelt's plane for Mrs. Roosevelt." (from his granddaughter, Terri Anderson).

The 1930 census for Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska lists Homer C. Munson, age 29, head, an airmail pilot; his wife, Eva A., age 25; and a daughter, Marian J., age 2 years, one month, b. in Kansas.

The following news item appeared in a local Iowa newspaper in April 1945:

ESTHERVILLE PILOT FLEW MRS. ROOSEVELT TO WARM SPRINGS

Estherville, April 19, - Lt. Col. Homer Munson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Munson of Estherville, piloted the plane which flew Mrs. Roosevelt, White House Secretary Stephen Early and Vice Admiral Ross McIntire, White House physician and navy surgeon general, from Washington to Warm Springs, Georgia, when Franklin Delano Roosevelt died last Thursday. Col. Munson wrote his mother a brief letter from Georgia, stating that the trip was smooth, and that on arrival at their destination Mrs. Roosevelt stopped and shook hands with him and commended him for the ship's handling.
