Mr. George Walton Craddock

Our first World War I soldier for this newsletter is Mr. George Walton Craddock.

He was born October 16, 1894. He was the son of Alberry B. and Annie Mariah (Walton) Craddock. In the 1910 census, he had four sisters and one brother. In the home was Mrs. Drusilla Craddock. She may have been the grandmother. In 1920, he was living at Hiseville with Eliza F. Edwards. He married Mary Willie Edwards. They went to Indiana to get married. They got their marriage licenses on November 28, 1917. Mr. Ernest Jacob married them. They had one son, Bailey Anderson, who was born on July 15, 1920 and died in 1986. He is also buried in the Pearl Webb Cemetery.

He registered for WWI on June 5, 1917. Mr. W.H. Broady signed his papers. He entered the service on October 2, 1917 at Camp Taylor. He was a Union soldier. He came out of the war as a corporal. He died on October 15, 1921 at the young age of 27. He died of a brain tumor, while living in Cave City. Dr. Depp of Hiseville signed his death certificate. Mr. James Winn buried him. Others from this area that entered the service at the same time were Homer Wells, Leslie King, Bill Druen, Mansfield Burks, Reid Bolton, Smith White, Thomas Hines, and Munford Moss.

Mr. Edward Voyage Ennis

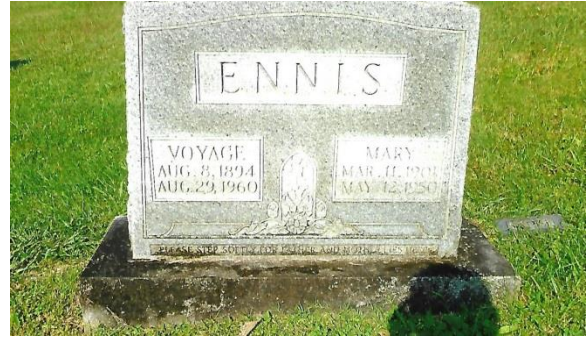

Mr. Edward Voyage Ennis will be the other WWI soldier for this newsletter.

He was born on August 8, 1894 at Defries, KY to John Edward and Iva Myrtle (Obanion) Ennis. He married Mary Susan Hodge on March 11, 1901. They were married in Clark County, Indiana on February 1, 1920 by Ernest E. Jacobs. She was the daughter of William and Maggie (Houk) Hodge.

The 1930 census listed him as a farmer with three children – Marjorie M., born 1921, Erusie E. (Jack), born 1922, and Bretia M., born 1925. He registered for WWI on June 5, 1914. He was working for Producers Creamery in Oleans, Indiana.

He reported to Camp Taylor on September 18, 1917. He left New York aboard ship 501 as a private in the 336th Inf. He returned from St. Nazaire, Grand aboard Edgar F. Lukenbach on April 29, 1919, listed as a wagoner with Supply Co., 100th Inf., arriving in Philadelphia, Pa on May 17, 1919. He returned to his hometown of Canmer. He also registered for WWII with C.E. Nichols signing his papers.

His wife, Mary, died May 12, 1950 at her home. Mr. Ennis died on August 29, 1960. His doctor was Dr. Harold Spevack and Sego Funeral Home buried him in the Pearl Webb Cemetery.

Mr. Ray Green maintains our website for Pearl Webb Cemetery. I had the privilege of talking with him in September. He said of all the cemeteries listed, Pearl Webb has the most complete information. The website is so useful. Anytime you want to know the date of someone buried there you just have to pull up the website and look it up. We have tried to add obituaries, flags for Veterans, death certificates and any other useful information.

Thanks to all of you who continue to support the cemetery with your generous donations. Our main problem is, the few who donate and the very few who are willing to do the physical labor required to keep the cemetery looking nice, are all getting old and will soon be at Pearl Webb ourselves. If anyone, is willing to help Memorial Day weekend, or anytime, please let us know.

Thank you also for the nice notes many of you include with your donation. At times this can be a thankless job.

We have several people buried at Pearl Webb who do not have death dates on their stones. We also have people who do not have a stone for their grave. I am going to list those without a death date. If you are related or know someone who is and would like to add the death date, Quarry Hill Monuments will do that for a reasonable cost.

If you are not related, but would like to “adopt” someone to add the date to a stone that would be a wonderful gift.

We at Pearl Webb Cemetery wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a healthy and blessed 2018.

My sincere thanks to Paul Sullivan, John Rogers, Larry Rogers, Jean Hedgepeth and Peggy Sue Avery for their help getting the newsletters prepared and delivered.
