History & Facts

By: Jean Hedgepeth

Mr. Everett Russell

My first WWI soldier for this newsletter will be Mr. Everett Russell. He was born on September 1, 1894. He was the son of Nichols and Martha B. (Russell). He was one of seven children. His brothers and sisters were Garnett, Beckman, Nettie, Oscar, Joe A., and Stella.

In 1920, he lived at Three Springs. On the 1940 census, he was living on the Stringtown Road. As I remember, he lived where Mr. J.W. Sturgeon lived. He was there when I moved to this community.

He only had a 2nd grade education, but was a very good blacksmith. I remember my brother-in-laws telling about everyone going there to have things made or repaired.

That road was named for an old one room school named Stringtown. I would like to know more about the school, just wish I had asked more questions years ago.

He died on October 7, 1951. Dr. J.W. York was his doctor and Dixon and Rogers of Magnolia buried him. His wife was Mary and his daughter was Ruby. He enlisted in the army on February 22, 1918 and was discharged on July 18, 1919. He was an engineer in the 84th Division.

He went into the service on August 1, 1918 and came out a corporal on June 9, 1919. He lived in Champaign, Illinois for a while. He was brought back to his hometown to be buried in the Pearl Webb Cemetery with his parents.

His mother had died in 1934 and his father died in 1937. His wife was Mary Delia Morgan. He also registered for WWII. He was said to be a very kind person. He died on April 30, 1976. He was one of twelve children.

My section of the newsletter this spring is a repeat of previous newsletters. Donations once again exceeded expenses. However, some of our best donors are joining the list of deceased with each newsletter, therefore we need you help and support to keep our cemetery looking beautiful.

It is Memorial Day time. PLEASE put your name on the bottom of your saddles. It's the only way we know where they belong. We need workers to sit at the cemetery and collect money to help with the preservation of Pearl Webb. You will be amazed at the number of people you will see from your past -- visiting with them is so enjoyable.

We really need help with manual labor. Jean Hedgepeth is great at sowing new graves. Several of us try to keep the flowers removed from graves after a burial. Picking up twigs and limbs is a constant job.

There are several stones that have come loose from their base. If you have a family member who has a loose stone you can get them glued. The smaller ones we try to do ourselves, but the large ones are impossible for us to do.

Please mention to the sponsors of our newsletter that we so appreciate their support. Without them, the newsletter would not be possible. We have families, who have lots they would like to sell, if you are interested please let me know.
