1. Caspar SCHERFFIG-1 <sup>[1]</sup>. He was born on 13 Mar 1735 in Germany. Burial in Uniontown, Carroll, MD <sup>[1]</sup>.

Notes for Caspar SCHERFFIG:

General Notes:

Gedcom 144344 notes surname also spelled Sherfig, Sherfey, Sherfy

From the book " The Peffley-Peffly-Pefley Families in America and Allied Families" By May M. Frost and Earl C Frost.

Kaspar Scherffig, the progenitor of the name in America, was born Mar 13th, 1735, in Germany. He sailed from Rotterdam, Holland, arriving at the port of Philadelphia, Penn, Sept 14, 1751, on the Ship Duke of Bedford, Cpt Jefferson. He signed his own name in the list of passengers,(among whom were nine Roman Catholics, and 120 Calvinists in the list of 260 passengers- Penna) None of the other names appears on said list. He was 16 years old at the time.

On Dec 13, 1758 he married Magdalena Heilmann, who was born in this country, of German parentage. They resided on a farm on meadow Branch, tributary of Big Pipe Creek, in Carroll Co, Maryland. To them fifteen children. Their family record, written in German, by Kasper, is found in their old family bible handed down from their youngest son, Joshus ,second to Solomon Sherfey, a nephew of his, thence to William Emory Sherfey, the youngest son. This bible is kept in good preservation and has a wonderful history. Kaspar was 23 yrs 9 mo old when married as per the family Bible.

Kentucky Cousins by Cecil Goode has birth date 3-13-1735 and unconfirmed death date as 1817.

Summers, Libby Note: Mrs. Lula M. Carner writes "I have a copy of the Sherfey family record in which is found the statement that Kasper Scherffig wrote on the fly leaf of their family Bible the following in German: On December 13th, 1758 I was married. I was 23 years 9 months old, Magdalena was 20 years 5 months old." Then followed the names and dates of birth of their 15 children, five of whom died in infancy. In another place was stated that Magdalena was born in this country of German parents. And that her name was Heilman. They settled on a farm near Taneytown, Maryland. They were members of the Church of the Brethren (Dunkers) and are buried in the Big Pipe Creek Cemetery. The inscription on Magdalene's tomb stone is easily read. Family Bible was printed in Germantown by the Brethren Association in 1776 and is still in existence. In October my daughter and I visited the neighborhood where Casper and Magdalena lived, reared their children and were buried. The church to which they belonged is standing in good condition. It was an interesting visit but I failed to find anything relating to the Heilman family. The cemetery is well kept and Magdalena's head stone is in good condition, and bears the following inscription: 'In Memory of Magdalena Sherfig, Who departed this life July 23, 1825, Aged 87 years and 10 days.'"

Notes for Abraham SHERFEY:

General Notes:

Vernon Lester Barlow notes: The following is copied from Tennessee Sherfy Leighten's copy of the Sherfey record given May Frost by William Emory Sherfey.

"Abraham Sherfey made his will made May 28, 1812, which stated that he was the son of Casper and Magdalena Sherfig. His wife's name was Anna and one of the witnesses to the will was Joseph Gary, a brother in law and from the state of Tennessee. This will provided that the children under age shall be bound out by elders or ministers of our Baptist Church; the executors of this will were John Kagy and Jacob Garber. This will was probared in Shenendoah County, Va, on October 12, 1812; thus indicating that he died in the year the will was made and also it appears from the records that in the settlement of the estate of Abraham that John Kooze was appointed guardian for the three minor heirs, Soloman Martin, and Samuel D., and that they were paid their proportion of the estate in the final settlement thereof."

Joseph E. SHERFEY

Biography from History of Clay Co., Indiana, Vol. II, au: William Travis, publ. 1909

JOSEPH E. SHERFEY, president of the Sherfey & Kidd Company, dealers in furniture, carpets, draperies and other goods of this line, doing an extensive business at Brazil, Indiana, was born in Fountain county, Indiana, April 7, 1843, and has the honorable distinction of having been one of the soldiers who put down the great Civil war. He is the son of David and Mary (McNeill) Sherfey. The father was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania, on what is now known as the battlefield of Gettysburg. The great-grandfather, Casper Sherfey, came from Germany in 1750 and located in Pennsylvania and became the father of fifteen children, a majority of whom reached maturity. The mother, Mary (McNeill) Sherfey, was born in Frederick City, Maryland, and by her marriage to Mr. Sherfey became the mother of nine children—six sons and three daughters—two of whom now survive—Samuel W. of New Mexico and Joseph E., who is the eighth child in his parents' family. The father came from Perryville, Indiana, about 1834 and was by trade a miller, which trade he followed throughout his entire life. He was a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church and in political affiliations was a Whig, which was the forerunner of the present Republican party.

Joseph E. Sherfey was educated in the common schools of Perryville, Vermilion county, Indiana, and at Asbury University, Greencastle, Indiana, then in the winter of 1862-63 began teaching, and taught in the winter of 1865-66. In the summer of 1866 he opened a furniture store at Bainbridge, Indiana. One of the most important chapters in Mr. Sherfey's career, however, was the one relating to his Civil war record. He enlisted as a member of Company D, Fifty-fifth Indiana Regiment in July, 1862, for a three months service and was shot through the left hip at the battle of Richmond, Kentucky, August 30, 1862. The rebels marched over him and later he found himself in a hospital; in the month of October, 1862, he was sent home on parole. In the spring of 1864 he enlisted in Company F, One Hundred and Thirty-third Indiana Regiment, for one hundred days and served at Bridgeport, Alabama, guarding General Sherman's rear until the term of his enlistment had expired. In the autumn of 1867 he moved to Brazil, Indiana, and has been engaged in the furniture trade ever since, except one year, when he was city treasurer. He is identified with the Masonic fraternity, being a member of Brazil Lodge, No. 264, A. F. and A. M.; also belongs to Brazil Lodge, No. 30, Knights of Pythias order and Ben Hur Court, No. 8. Other societies of which he is a worthy member are the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Brazil Lodge, No. 215 and Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, No. 762. He is a zealous temperance worker, and a firm believer in the principles of the Republican party. He was married October 20, 1869, at Bainbridge, Indiana, to Miss Helen E. Ader, daughter of David and Elizabeth (Aidridge) Ader. She was born in Putnam county, Indiana, December 1, 1845. Her father was born in North Carolina and came to Indiana at an early day, locating in Putnam county, where he followed farming and cattle raising. Politically, he was a Democrat. He was the father of four children, Mrs. Sherfey being the eldest child. His wife was a native of Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Sherfey are the parents of four sons and two daughters, as follows: David A.; Charles W.; Winfield E.; Mary McNeill; Elizabeth A.; and Henry E. Mr. Sherfey has in his possession a complete genealogy of the Sherfey family dating from March 15, 1735.

NEGenWeb Project, Resource Center, On-Line Library

PROF. CHARLES W. SHERFEY has been identified with the literary and industrial interests of Nebraska City from its infancy. He is at present engaged in horticultural pursuits, raising flowers, small fruits, and vegetables, and has the best appointed greenhouse in Otoe County. He is a native of Maryland, born July 6, 1829, a son of Solomon and Catherine (McNeil) Sherfey, natives respectively of Gettysburg, Pa., and of Loudoun County, Va. Jacob Sherfey, the grandfather of our subject, lived near Gettysburg, but it is not known on which side of the State line he was born. His father, Casper Sherfey, was born about the year 1735, in Saxe Coburg Gotha, Germany, sixty miles northwest of the city of Hanover. At the age of sixteen years he came to America, and at the age of twenty-three years, 1758, he married Magdalena Deardorff, a German lady, who was born in 1738. They resided in Frederick County, Md. To them were born fifteen children, six of whom died in childhood. The nine surviving children were five sons and four daughters. Their sons were: John, who removed to Jonesboro, Washington Co., Tenn.; Abraham, removed to Virginia; Benjamin, removed to Augusta County, Va.; Jacob lived at Gettysburg, Pa.; Joshua lived in Frederick County, Md., died in Parke County, Ind. Their daughters were: Rebecca, who married Joseph Carey; Mary, who married Nicholas Oustatt; Catherine, who married John Schriver; Elizabeth, who married Jacob Carroll. Casper's son, Jacob, married Catherine Bosserman, in 1794. He was born in Frederick County, Md., March 4, 1769, and died Aug. 5, 1842. His wife was born in York County, Pa., Aug., 12, 1773, and died Aug. 4, 1844. To them were born eleven children, two of whom died in childhood, namely, Maria, aged two years, and Daniel aged four. Eight sons and one daughter grew to mature years. David was born Jan. 13, 1797, died March 31, 1861; Solomon, born Jan. 26, 1799, married Feb. 6, 1827, died May 5, 1876. Next was Jacob. John was born Jan. 23, 1805, married March 21, 1837, died Feb. 12, 1871; Abram, born Aug. 10, 1807; Samuel, Jan. 17, 1810, married Dec. 29, 1836; Joseph, born June 30, 1812, married Feb. 6, 1840, died Oct. 4, 1850. Simeon, born Feb. 7, 1814, married March 3, 1836, died Oct. 3, 1850. Hannah Sherfey Farnsworth, born Dec. 2, 1817, married Sept. 29, 1848.

The father of our subject was reared in Pennsylvania, and in 1827 he went to Maryland and lived there until 1854. He married a Virginia lady, a daughter of John McNeil, who was, it is thought, born in Maryland, of Scotch-Irish ancestry. His father, the great-grandfather of our subject, was born in Ireland and came to America when a young man with an older brother. His brother soon started to return to his native land, and was never heard from afterward. Mr. McNeil settled in this country permanently, married, and it is supposed, spent his last years in Perryville, Vermillion Co., Ind. The maternal grandfather of our subject married in Virginia, moved from there to Maryland, and thence to Vermillion County, Ind., about 1835. He was numbered among the pioneers of that county, where he improved a farm and spent the remainder of his life. Mr. Sherfey removed from Maryland to Tippecanoe County, Ind., accompanied by his wife and four children, the removal being made with the old-fashioned covered wagon drawn by a pair of horses. They took with them their household goods, and as their route lay through a sparsely settled country, they often camped by the wayside. Mr. Sherfey became a pioneer of Tippecanoe County, engaging in the mercantile business there, and he also managed a flouring-mill. In the fall of 1837 he sold out there and moved to Burlington, Iowa. At that time Iowa formed a part of the Territory of Wisconsin. and during the winter of 1837-38 the Territorial Legislature met in Burlington. There were then but few white inhabitants in the Territory, and the greater part of the land was still owned by the Indians. He lived to see it one of the most populous and wealthy States in the Union, and as one of its pioneers he was instrumental in bringing about the great change. He established himself in the mercantile business, and he got his goods either from Cincinnati or St. Louis, Chicago then being a small, unimportant town, with no communication whatever with the West, except overland by teams. Mr. Sherfey resided in and near Burlington until his death in 1876, when that town lost one of its most honored pioneers, one who had done much to build up its mercantile interests. He was a man of marked intelligence, strict integrity, and much capability. His wife, a most estimable lady, died at the home of our subject in Nebraska City, Aug. 6, 1887, at the age of eighty-one. There were four children born to this worthy couple, all of whom are living, namely: Caroline A., widow of E. D. Rand, lives in Burlington, Iowa; Charles W.; John M., lives in Burlington; William E. lives in Council Grove, Kan.

Charles W. Sherfey was in his fifth year when he accompanied his parents to Indiana, and he was eight years old when the family moved to Burlington, Iowa. He there attended the early schools and gained the preliminaries of a liberal education. When he was twenty years old he went to Green Castle, Ind., to enroll his name among the students of Asbury University (now DePauw University), and was graduated from there with the first honors in the class of '54. He decided to fit himself for the legal profession, and with that end in view he entered the law department of Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass. After completing his course there in 1856, he returned to Burlington, and in 1857 came to the Territory of Nebraska, bringing with him a printing-press, and locating in Plattsmouth, he established the Platte Valley Times, and published that paper quite successfully for one year. Then came the great financial crisis, which made it very hard to run a paper with any profit in that city, so he came to Nebraska City, where he soon began the publication of a paper called The People's Press, the forerunner of the Nebraska Press of the present day. A short time before the office was burned in 1860, he had severed his connection with the paper, and abandoning the editorial profession, had adopted that of teacher, for which action he may be considered a public benefactor, as in those early days of the settlement of the State it was very difficult to get instructors for the schools who were themselves well educated. He taught in Nebraska City almost continuously until 1879, thus incalculably raising the standard of education here, and giving this community the benefit of his superior literary attainments for nearly twenty years. In 1863 Mr. Sherfey bought six lots in the northern part of the city and built a small frame house, into which he removed with his wife. He has since bought other lots and now owns forty-four in various parts of the city, and in 1877 he erected his present residence, a commodious, comfortable frame house, very pleasantly located on a rise of ground commanding a view of the city.

Prof. Sherfey was married in 1862 to Miss Irene, daughter of Wesley and Mary A. (Booton) Spurlock, of whom see sketch. Mrs. Sherfey was born in Iowa, in February, 1843. The pleasant wedded life of our subject and his amiable wife has been blessed by the birth of four children; the eldest, Carrie A., died when seven and one-half years old; Charles E., Irene Belle, Eulalia. Mr. and Mrs. Sherfey are valued members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and whenever opportunity offers they are among the first to extend a helping hand to the needy or to sympathize with the sorrowing. Mr. Sherfey is an uncompromising Republican in his political views.

The portrait of Prof. Sherfey appears in connection with this personal sketch.
